"Never mind the police;
the dagoes!"

The cries stirred the crowd to a of frenzy. Men hurried to a house in which it was said the burned Italians had been taken.
They were not found there, having left for the hospital. Then a crowd of men or ten men was organized to the home of Carbo, but it was found then that he had not been there, but to the hospital.

During this time there had been several policemen on the scene, but soon the entire evening detail arrived, the explosion having occurred just as it was going on duty.

The detail went at once to the hospital. There the dressing of the injuries of Carbo and Niva were hurried, and soon the police had the men in the patrol wagon and were taking them to the station house.

The part Chitto had played was not generally known. He, too, was put under arrest.

KILLED SELF WHILE ASLEEP.

That Theory is Advanced by Friends of Heinsohn.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 21.—A special from Muncie, Ind., says that the theory that Kirby Heinsohn, a rich man here, inflicted a fatal wound while trying to shave himself in his sleep at Sylvester, Ga., Sunday, was advanced by members of a committee of Elks who accompanied the body home.

J. H. Westberry, cashier of a bank at Sylvester, in which Heinsohn was interested, says Heinsohn was taken ill last Friday. He worried because he was unshaven and decided to shave himself Sunday morning. It is surmised that he arose and went to the bath room half asleep and returned to bed with the razor, and that the determination to shave being on his mind, he drew the razor across his throat, cutting the jugular vein.

Too weak to speak, he wrote on a piece of paper that he did not know what he was doing, as he was asleep.
